- 3.1 Annual and Regular Meetings. Meetings of the Trustees shall be held from time to time upon the call of the Chairman, if any, the Vice Chairman, if any, the President, the Secretary or a majority of the Trustees. Regular meetings of the Trustees may be held without call or notice and shall generally be held quarterly. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any meeting of the Board of Trustees need be stated in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, and no notice need be given of action proposed to be taken by written consent. Members of the Board of Trustees or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone, video conference or similar communications equipment if all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in a meeting by these means constitutes presence in person at the meeting, except that for purposes of actions required to be made "in person" by the 1940 Act, participation by such means shall not constitute "in person" participation except to the extent permitted by the 1940 Act, any exemption therefrom or any interpretation thereof by the Securities Exchange Commission or its staff.
- 3.2 Chairman; Records. The Chairman, if any, shall act as chairman at all meetings of the Trustees; in absence of a chairman, the Vice Chairman shall act as Chairman and in the absence of the Chairman and Vice Chairman, the Trustees present shall elect one of their numbers to act as temporary chairman. The results of all actions taken at a meeting of the Trustees, or by written consent of the Trustees, shall be recorded by the person appointed by the Board of Trustees as the meeting Secretary.
- 3.3 Reliance. Each Trustee shall, in the performance of his or her duties with respect to the Trust, be entitled to rely on any information, opinion, report or statement, including any financial statement or other financial data, prepared or presented by an officer or employee of the Trust whom the Trustee reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented, by a lawyer, certified public accountant or other person, as to a matter which the Trustee reasonably believes to be within the person's professional or expert competence, or, by a committee of the Board on which the Trustee does not serve, as to a matter within its designated authority, if the Trustee reasonably believes the committee to merit confidence.
- 3.4 Ratification. The Board of Trustees may ratify and make binding on the Trust any action or inaction by the Trust or its officers to the extent that the Board of Trustees could have originally authorized the matter. Moreover, any action or inaction questioned in any Shareholders' derivative proceeding or any other proceeding on the ground of lack of authority, defective or irregular execution, adverse interest of a Trustee, officer or Shareholder, non-disclosure, miscomputation, the application of improper principles or practices of accounting or otherwise, may be ratified, before or after judgment, by the Board of Trustees, and if so ratified, shall have the same force and effect as if the questioned action or inaction had been originally duly authorized, and such ratification shall be binding upon the Trust and its Shareholders and shall constitute a bar to any claim or execution of any judgment in respect of such questioned action or inaction.
- 3.5 Non-Disclosure Agreement. If directed by 2/3 of the Continuing Trustees, a Trustee shall be required as a condition to his or her service as a Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trust an agreement (in such form and with such content as the Board of Trustees shall approve) requiring all information received in a Person's capacity as a Trustee of the Trust to be held confidential.
- 3.6 Requirement to Adhere to Trust Policies. If directed by 2/3 of the Continuing Trustees, a Trustee shall be required as a condition to his or her service as a Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trust an acknowledgement of the policies of the Trust upon taking office as a Trustee and after any change in such policies of the Trust. Failure to adhere to any policies shall constitute grounds for the removal of the Trustee for "Cause" as provided in Section 2.3 of the Declaration.
- 3.7 Qualifications. Only individuals satisfying the following qualification requirements (the "Trustee Qualifications") applicable to all Trustees may be nominated, elected, appointed or seated and qualify ("nominated or seated") to serve as a Trustee unless a majority of the Trustees and 2/3 of the Continuing Trustees then in office shall have determined by resolution that failure to satisfy a particular qualification requirement will not present undue conflicts or impede the ability of the individual to discharge the duties of a Trustee or the free flow of information among Trustees or between the Trust's investment adviser, investment sub-adviser (if any) or other service providers and the Board of Trustees:
  - (i) an individual nominated or seated as a Trustee shall not be under legal disability and must be at least thirty-five (35) years of age and not older than is permitted under the retirement policy of the Trust (if any);

- (iv) an individual nominated or seated as a Trustee shall not have been charged (unless such charges were dismissed or the individual was otherwise exonerated) with a criminal offense involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, breach of fiduciary duty or breach of trust, or have been convicted or have pled guilty or nolo contendere with respect to a felony under the laws of the United States or any state thereof;
- (v) an individual nominated or seated as a Trustee shall not be and shall not have been subject to any censure, order, consent decree (including consent decrees in which the respondent has neither admitted nor denied the findings) or adverse final action of any federal, state or foreign governmental or regulatory authority (including self regulatory organizations), barring or suspending such individual from participation in or association with any investment-related business or restricting such individual's activities with respect to any investment-related business (collectively, "Prohibited Conduct"), nor shall an individual nominated or seated as a Trustee be the subject of any investigation or proceeding that could reasonably be expected to result (in the judgment of the Board) in an individual nominated or seated as a Trustee failing to satisfy the requirements of this clause (v), nor shall any individual nominated or seated as a Trustee be or have engaged in any conduct which has resulted in, or could have reasonably been expected or would reasonably be expected to result (in each case, in the judgment of the Board) in, the Securities and Exchange Commission censuring, placing limitations on the activities, functions, or operations of, suspending, or revoking the registration of any investment adviser under Section 203(e) or (f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940;
- (vi) an individual nominated or seated as a trustee shall not be and shall not have been the subject of any of the ineligibility provisions contained in Section 9(a) of the 1940 Act that would result in, or could have reasonably been expected or would reasonably be expected to result in such individual or a company of which such individual is an affiliated person (as defined in Section 2(a)(3) of the 1940 Act) being ineligible, in the absence of an exemptive order under Section 9(c) of the 1940 Act, to serve or act in the capacity of employee, officer, director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser, or depositor of any registered investment company, or principal underwriter for any registered investment company, registered unit investment trust, or registered face-amount certificate company;

- 5.2 Maintenance and Inspection of Declaration of Trust and By-Laws. The Trust shall keep at its offices the original or a copy of the Declaration and these By-Laws, as amended or restated from time to time, where they may be inspected during the Trust's regular business hours by any Shareholder, or its duly authorized representative, upon reasonable written demand to the Trust (which shall be at least 10 days in advance), for any purpose reasonably related to such Shareholder's interest as a Shareholder.

Unless authorized by the Board of Trustees, the President, Secretary or any Vice President of the Trust or otherwise required by law, no Shareholder shall be entitled to receive copies of any records of the Trust. Any Shareholder claiming a right to receive copies of any record of the Trust shall make a demand, in writing, by letter to the Secretary of the Trust stating with specificity (i) the records sought by the Shareholder and (ii) the basis in law for the Shareholder's entitlement to copies of such records. The Board of Trustees, or, in case the Board of Trustees does not act, the President, the Secretary or any Vice President, may keep confidential from Shareholders for such period of time as the Board of Trustees or such officer, as applicable, deems reasonable any information that the Board of Trustees or such officer, as applicable, reasonably believes to be in the nature of trade secrets or other information that the Board of Trustees or such officer, as the case may be, in good faith believes would not be in the best interests of the Trust to disclose or that could damage the Trust or its business or that the Trust is required by law or by agreement with a third party to keep confidential. A Shareholder that is otherwise eligible under applicable law to inspect the Trust's books of account, Share ledger, or other specified documents of the Trust shall have no right to make such inspection if the Board of Trustees determines that such Shareholder has an improper purpose for requesting such inspection.

6.4 Provisions in Conflict with Law or Regulations.

- (a) The provisions of these By-Laws are servable, and if the Board of Trustees shall determine with the advice of counsel, that any of such provision is in conflict with the Declaration, the 1940 Act, the Code, the Delaware Statutory Trust Act, or with other applicable laws and regulations, the conflicting provision shall be deemed not to have constituted a part of these By-Laws from the time when such provisions became inconsistent with such laws or regulations; provided, however, that such determination shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of these By-Laws or render invalid or improper any action taken or omitted prior to such determination.
- (b) If any provision of these By-Laws shall be held invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision in such jurisdiction and shall not in any manner affect such provision in any other jurisdiction or any other provision of these By-Laws in any jurisdiction.
- (c) there shall not be applicable to the Trust, (i) the provisions of Section 3540 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code or (ii) any provisions of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware (other than the Delaware Statutory Trust Act) pertaining to trusts which relate to or regulate (A) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of trustee accounts or schedules of trustee fees and charges, (B) affirmative requirements to post bonds for trustees, officers, agents or employees of a trust, (C) the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding or disposition of real or personal property, (D) fees or other sums payable to trustees, officers, agents or employees of a trust, (E) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income or principal, (F) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage or other manner of holding of trust assets, or (G) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards of responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of trustees, which are inconsistent with the limitations or liabilities or authorities and powers of the Trustees set forth or referenced in the Declaration of Trust or these Bylaws.

The seal, if any, of the Trust, or any Series of the Trust, if any, may be affixed to any instrument, and the seal and its attestation may be lithographed, engraved or otherwise printed on any document (and it shall be sufficient to include the designation "(SEAL)" to any instrument to which it is intended that the seal be affixed) with the same force and effect as if it had been imprinted and affixed manually in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if done by a Delaware business corporation. The presence or absence of a seal shall have no effect on the validity, enforceability or binding nature of any document or instrument that is otherwise duly authorized, executed and delivered.
- 6.8 No Fiduciary Duty. Except to the extent required by applicable law or expressly stated herein, nothing in these By-Laws shall be deemed to create any fiduciary duty or other legal duty or obligation on the part of the Trustees or Trust officers to the Trust, the Shareholders, or any other person.
- 6.9 Litigation. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Trustees shall have full power and authority, in the name and on behalf of the Trust, to engage in and to prosecute, defend, compromise, settle, abandon, or adjust by arbitration or otherwise, any actions, suits, proceedings, disputes, claims and demands relating to the Trust or arising out of or relating to the Trustees' service to the Trust, and out of the assets of the Trust to pay or to satisfy any liabilities, losses, debts, claims or expenses (including without limitation attorneys' fees) incurred in connection therewith, including those of litigation, and such power shall include without limitation the power of the Trustees or any committee thereof, to dismiss or terminate any action, suit, proceeding, dispute, claim or demand, derivative or otherwise, brought by any party, including a Shareholder in its own name or in the name of the Trust, whether or not the Trust or any of the Trustees may be named individually therein or the subject matter arises by reason of business for or on behalf of the Trust. To the maximum extent permitted by law, any exercise of the power described herein shall be final, binding on all parties (including Shareholders), and judicially unreviewable.

6.10 Derivative Actions.

- (i) To the maximum extent permitted by law, no Shareholder or group of Shareholders shall have the right to bring or maintain any court action, proceeding or claim on behalf of the Trust without first making demand on the Trustees requesting the Trustees to bring or maintain such action, proceeding or claim. To the maximum extent permitted by law, such demand shall not be excused under any circumstances, including claims of alleged interest on the part of the Trustees, unless the plaintiff makes a specific showing that such demand is not likely to succeed and irreparable nonmonetary injury to the Trust that the plaintiff could not reasonably have prevented would otherwise result. To the maximum extent permitted by law, for purposes of this Section 6.10, a demand on the Trustees shall only be deemed not likely to succeed if a majority of the Trustees, or a majority of any committee established to consider the merits of the action, are "interested persons" of the Trust, as that term is defined in the 1940 Act. Such demand shall be mailed to the Secretary of the Trust at the Trust's principal office and shall set forth with particularity the nature of the proposed court action, proceeding or claim and the essential facts relied upon by the Shareholder(s) to support the allegations made in the demand. Such demand shall also be executed by or on behalf of no fewer than three complaining Shareholders, each of which shall be unaffiliated and unrelated to any other complaining Shareholder executing such demand. The Trustees shall consider such demand within a time frame that the Trustees in their discretion consider reasonable and appropriate. In their sole discretion, the Trustees may submit the matter to a vote of Shareholders of the Trust. To the maximum extent permitted by law, any decision by the Trustees to bring, maintain or settle (or not to bring, maintain or settle) such action, proceeding or claim, or to submit the matter to a vote of Shareholders, shall be final and binding upon the Shareholders, and judicially unreviewable.
- (ii) To the maximum extent permitted by law, no Shareholder (or group of Shareholders) may bring or maintain a direct action or claim claiming injury as a Shareholder (or Shareholders) of the Trust when the matters alleged (if true) would give rise to a claim by the Trust or the Trustees, other than a direct action or claim that the Shareholder (or group of Shareholders) has suffered an injury distinct from that suffered by Shareholders of the Trust generally, unless the Shareholder (or group of Shareholders) has obtained authorization from the Trustees to bring the action or claim. Further, to the maximum extent permitted by law, no Shareholder (or group of Shareholders) may bring or maintain a direct action or claim against the Trust or the Trustees predicated upon an express or implied right of action under the Declaration of Trust, these Bylaws or the 1940 Act (excepting rights of action permitted under Section 36(b) of the 1940 Act), nor shall any Shareholder (or group of Shareholders) who is similarly situated to one or more other Shareholders with respect to the alleged injury, have the right to bring such an action or claim, unless the Shareholder (or group of Shareholders) has obtained authorization from the Trustees to bring the action or claim. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the requirement of authorization under this paragraph shall not be excused under any circumstances (excepting rights of action permitted under Section 36(b) of the 1940 Act), including claims of alleged interest on the part of the Trustees. A request for authorization shall be mailed to the Secretary of the Trust at the Trust's principal office and shall set forth with particularity the nature of the proposed action, proceeding or claim and the essential facts relied upon by the Shareholder (or group of Shareholders) to support the allegations made in the request. The Trustees shall consider such request within a time frame that the Trustees in their discretion consider reasonable and appropriate. In their sole discretion, the Trustees may submit the matter to a vote of Shareholders of the Trust. To the maximum extent permitted by law, any decision by the Trustees to settle or to authorize (or not to settle or to authorize) such court action, proceeding or claim, or to submit the matter to a vote of Shareholders, shall be binding upon the Shareholder (or group of Shareholders). A Shareholder bringing a direct action or claim must be a Shareholder at the time of the injury complained of, or acquire the Shares afterwards by operation of law from a person who was a Shareholder at that time.
- (iii) To the maximum extent permitted by law, each Shareholder acknowledges and agrees that any alleged injury to Trust property any diminution in the value of the Shareholder's shares, or any other claim arising out of or relating to an allegation regarding the actions, inaction, or omissions of or by the Trustees, the Trust's officers, or a service provider is a legal claim belonging only to the Trust and not to the Shareholders individually. Accordingly, all Shareholders agree to bring any and all such claims pursuant only to the provisions of this Section 6.10
- (iv) In addition to satisfying the requirements set forth in these Bylaws and any requirements applicable to shareholders of Delaware statutory trusts that are not inconsistent with the terms of these Bylaws, a Shareholder or Shareholders may bring a derivative action on behalf of the Trust only if the following conditions are met:
  - a. A Shareholder or Shareholders eligible to bring such derivative action must collectively hold Shares representing ten percent (10%) or more of the all Shares issued and outstanding; and

- b. The Trustees shall be entitled to retain counsel or other advisers in considering the merits of the request and shall require an undertaking by the Shareholder (or Shareholders) making such request to reimburse the Trust for the expense of any such advisers in the event that the Trustees determine not to bring such action.
- (v) For purposes of this Section 6.10, the Trustees may designate a committee to consider a Shareholder demand. Such committee shall be entitled to retain counsel or other advisers in considering the merits of the request and shall require an undertaking by the Shareholder (or Shareholders) making such request to reimburse the Trust for the expense of any such advisers in the event that the committee determines not to bring such action.

6.11 Jurisdiction and Waiver of Jury Trial.

- (i) Unless the Trust consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, in accordance with Section 3804(e) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware to the extent there is subject matter jurisdiction in such court for the claims asserted or, if not, then the Superior Court of the State of Delaware, shall be the sole and exclusive forum for any action or dispute arising out of, relating to, or connected in any way with, the Trust, including, but not limited to:
  - a. any derivative suit, action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Trust,
  - b. any suit, action or proceeding asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any Trustee, officer or other employee of the Trust to the Trust, any series or class or the Trust's Shareholders,
  - c. any suit, action or proceeding asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act.
  - d. any suit, action or proceeding asserting a claim arising pursuant to or to interpret, apply, enforce or determine the validity of the Declaration of Trust or these By-Laws,
  - e. any suit, action or proceeding arising pursuant to any provision of an agreement regarding the governance of the Trust or transfer of Shares of the Trust,
  - f. any suit, action or proceeding asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine or
  - g. any other claim of any nature against the Trust, any Trustee, or any officer or other employee of the Trust, whether arising under the Declaration of Trust, these By-Laws, the Delaware Act, or otherwise, including any claim seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of, relating to, or in connection with, the Declaration of Trust, these By-Laws, the Trust, any Shares, or any class or series of Shares (each, a "Delaware Action"), provided, however, that unless the Trust consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Federal District Courts of the United States of America shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be the sole and exclusive forum for the resolution of any cause or causes of action arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or the 1940 Act (each, a "Federal Securities Action" and together with a Delaware Action, a "Covered Action"), and all Shareholders and all other Persons purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding or claiming any interest in any Shares hereby irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of such courts (and the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such suit, action or proceeding and irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection they may make now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in such court or that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum, and provided, however, that for claims that are required to be brought in federal court, the Federal District Courts of the United States shall be the sole and exclusive forum for such claims.

(ii) IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUIT, ACTION, OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY COURT, ALL SHAREHOLDERS AND ALL OTHER SUCH PERSONS HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW.

- (iii) All Shareholders and all other such Persons agree that service of summons, complaint or other process in connection with any such suit, action or proceedings may be made by registered or certified mail or by overnight courier addressed to such Person at the address shown on the books and records of the Trust for such Person or at the address of the Person shown on the books and records of the Trust with respect to the Shares that such Person claims an interest in. Service of process in any such suit, action or proceeding against the Trust or any Trustee or officer of the Trust may be made at the address of the Trust's registered agent in the State of Delaware. Any service so made shall be effective as if personally made in the State of Delaware. Any Shareholder and any other Person purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding or claiming any interest in Shares shall be deemed to have notice of and consented to the provisions of this Section.
- (iv) If any Covered Action is filed in a court other than the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or the Superior Court of the State of Delaware or the Federal District Courts of the United States of America, as applicable, as set forth above (a "Foreign Action"), in the name of any Shareholder or any other Person purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding or claiming any interest in Shares, such Shareholder or other Person shall be deemed to have consented to (a) the personal jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, the Superior Court of the State of Delaware or the Federal District Courts of the United States of America, as applicable, in connection with any action brought in any such courts to enforce the first paragraph of this Section (an "Enforcement Action") and (b) having service of process made upon such Shareholder or other Person in any such Enforcement Action by service upon such Shareholder's or other Person's counsel in the Foreign Action as agent for such Shareholder or other Person.

8.1 Amendment and Repeal of By-Laws. In accordance with Section 3.8 of the Declaration, only the Trustees shall have the power to amend or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws at any time provided, however, that no By-Law may be amended, adopted or repealed by the Trustees if such amendment, adoption or repeal requires, pursuant to law, the Declaration, or these By-Laws, a vote of the Shareholders. Action by the Trustees with respect to the By-Laws shall be taken by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Trustees and 3/4 of the Continuing Trustees.
